

All Saints Primary School Newsletter

14th December 2015

Dear Parents/Carers,

Christmas 2015!

Well Christmas is definitely on its way! Christingles have been made and our Christingle Service was very enjoyable thanks to Vicar Richard and his wife, Liz who led the service. The hall has been beautifully decorated by our wonderful team of ASSA members. Last week we enjoyed delightful performances by all our children who have moved and inspired us once again. Special thanks go to Harry and Sophia for their wonderful singing and to Oscar and Harry (again), for playing Silent Night on the guitar.

Carol Service – Wednesday 16th December 7.00pm

Our Key Stage 2 Carol Service will take place at Holwell Church this year. This is always a special occasion which opens with a magical candlelit procession. Sapphires will be singing the beautiful songs they have learnt with Miss Davies. We do expect our children to attend this occasion so please contact us if there are any problems with attendance and we will do all we can to help. Car parking has been organised and there will be a governor directing traffic on the evening.

Uniform

We would like all children to feel proud of their identity as a member of All Saints. To reflect this please could all children wear the correct items of school uniform including footwear.

Finally...

Here's to a wonderfully festive last week in school with still much to look forward to. The children will be involved in lots of seasonal activities including Christmas parties. The grand Hamper draw will take place. The Book Awards, Attendance Awards and School Badge Awards will be presented and our now traditional Christmas singalong will take place on the last afternoon of term!

Can I remind you to check dates and times of events on our website please?

Cali and Emily Hancock have a beautiful new baby brother called Riley – a perfect Christmas present! Many congratulations to their family. As the term draws to an end the All Saints team wish all our families a blessed and wonderful Christmas and a successful 2016. The new term starts Tuesday 5th January 2016.

Thank you for your continued support in all that we do,

Anne Crumpler