Dear Parents and Carers,

At All Saints we endeavour to provide children with experiences that will positively influence their lives and provide precious memories that will stay with them for the rest of their lives.

Cressida Cowell is the author-illustrator of the multi-million bestselling series 'How to Train your Dragon'. Luckily she is coming to Yeovil to launch her new project 'The Wizards of Once' which is a fantasy, magical adventure story that has already been signed up by animation studio DreamWorks. Amazingly, Mrs Crumpler has secured tickets for Year 5 and 6 children to attend her presentation on Monday 25th September 2017 at The Octagon Theatre where she will share details of this project and her inspiration for writing. She will also be providing top tips on becoming an author and illustrator as well as sharing behind the scene details about how the 'Dragon' books became films.

As you can imagine, this is an incredible experience for our children. We are asking for a small contribution of £3 per child towards this experience. We are grateful to ASSA for volunteering their time at events to raise funds to enhance our children's learning experiences and they have kindly agreed to subsidise the rest of the cost needed to take our children to this event.

Children will be travelling by coach during school hours (12:10pm to 3:15pm) but please ensure:

- They have a light weight rain coat
- A packed lunch (as we will be eating earlier in the day, before hot school meals are delivered)
- They are wearing their school uniform

Children may bring a book written by Cressida Cowell if they would like it signed however this will be time permitting.

Please ensure you sign the consent form below to allow your child to take part in this wonderful experience.
