

All Saints Primary School

Weekly Parent Email

Dear All,

The term is well underway, with week three complete already! There has been lots of evidence of exciting learning underway and children happily settled into classes and routines. It has been great to see Forest School activities taking place across the school this week, this is always hugely enjoyed by the children. In cooking, children were busy planning a dish to include seasonal vegetables, many of which are being harvested from All Saints garden! Well done to all our green fingered children and Miss Scott, Miss Amor and Mr Stobie, a school governor.

We are delighted that our guitar teacher, Alastair Chester, has volunteered his time to support reading with some of our children in addition to his tuition services. He now spends all day Tuesday at school and says he greatly enjoys reading with the children. We are always looking for more volunteers for this, so please consider this even if you only have a half hour to spare in a week. Additionally if you know of any community members who may enjoy this opportunity please ask them to contact the school. (A full Disclosure and Barring Check would be necessary for any volunteer role within school).

We are also excited to confirmed that we have now secured an excellent private drum tutor – Jack Mitchell (please refer to the attached poster). If you are interested in organising private lessons for your children with either Guitar, Violin, Piano or Drums, please contact the school office for further details.

Next week we look forward to welcoming Ella to our school in Year 6 and Sapphire in Year 3. Sapphire Class Children and staff are also very excited about meeting Cressida Cowell (author of 'How to train your Dragon') at The Octagon Theatre on Monday as part of Yeovil's literary festival. You now have the opportunity of ordering her new book 'The Wizards of Once' signed and dedicated for a reduced price of £8.99 instead of £12.99. If you would like to take advantage of this amazing offer, please complete the attached order form and return to the office on MONDAY MORNING 25th September.

Our first sports fixtures start next week with netball and tag rugby matches planned and our Diamond & Topaz Classes are planning a village walk on Thursday to support this term's project about Heroes (please refer to the attached permission letter). Please note, we are now able to accept permission for trips and events via email. Simply email office@bishopscaundle.dorset.sch.uk confirming the details of the event as well as your information and permission.

Wishing you all a lovely weekend,

All Saints
